GIVING LIKE GOD

Mark 10:35-45

Why is it that when you give to someone else, it feels so good? Why is it that when we serve another and meet their need, it gives us a sense of satisfaction and joy, which few things can compare? Giving, after all, is not easy. It requires time, effort and sacrifice. So why is it so satisfying? Why does it bring such deep happiness with it?

We receive joy from giving because when we give, we are like God! Think about it. God is the Ultimate Giver. All that exists comes from God's gracious and generous gift. Our lives, our relationships, our abilities, and our very being are the result of divine giving. So, if God is the ultimate giver, our role is to receive. There is goodness in that because receivers are who we are. We are entirely ourselves when we know how to accept from God with thanksgiving and wonder. Every so often, we receivers have a chance to be like God. Every so often, we are given a chance to serve. It can be as parents when we give our time and patience to form a new life in a son or daughter. It can be as children when we give of ourselves to care for an ageing parent. It can be as citizens that we work to bring about more justice in our society. It can be as a friend when we forgive so that a relationship can continue. This kind of giving is not easy, but it is divine. Giving is what God does. When we can serve, we can participate in God's action of creating, saving, and loving the world. Giving lifts us higher. It brings us closer to God's action. That is why it is so satisfying. That is why it feels so good.

Now, it is in this understanding that we can approach today's gospel. James and John are Jesus' disciples, and they came to him to define their roles in his mission. What they ask him is: What will we receive? We want to sit at your right and at your left in your glory. Now, there's nothing wrong in asking Jesus for this. Sitting with Jesus in glory is good, and we believe that James and John are sitting there right now. But note Jesus' response. Jesus says: I can offer you something more. I can offer you to be like God, to serve. If you drink this cup that I drink, if you serve the least among you, then the lives that you will change, the hope that you will revive, the joy that you will instill in others will overshadow whatever seats you receive in the kingdom. The flaw of James and John was that they did not recognize that following Jesus allowed them to do what God does and that in that action of service, they would find the greatest joy.

The gospel, then, calls us to value opportunities to give. Indeed, our primary stance is to be receivers, to accept from God all that is given with thankfulness. But every so often, we get a chance to serve, and we should never consider that opportunity a burden. It is, in fact, an invitation to do what God does, a chance to participate in the power and the love that shapes creation, an opportunity to catch a glimpse of the joy and the beauty of God.

Wishing you God's best

Fr. Shibu Jacob

GO AND INVITE
to the banquet

This week, you're invited to partner with the Church in Mongolia to help deliver essential services to people who need it most. Lack of access and social stigma mean that some of the most vulnerable people are not getting the support they require.

The House of Mercy will provide a haven for many people, including those affected by homelessness and domestic violence. Without your partnership, people in need will go without the assistance they require.

During World Mission Sunday, we are called to "Invite others to the banquet", and we invite you to share the warmth of God's love with our brothers and sisters who need it most in Mongolia. You can support this work by using the appeal envelope, going online at catholicmission.org.au/mongolia, or scanning the QR code. Your gift will also assist many other Church programs around the world.

NOTIZIE ITALIANE (Domenica 20 Ottobre 2024) 29ª Domenica - Anno B (Marco 10, 35-45)

In quel tempo, si avvicinarono a Gesù Giacomo e Giovanni, i figli di Zebedeo, dicendogli: "Maestro, vogliamo che tu faccia per noi quello che ti chiederemo". Egli disse loro: "Che cosa volete che io faccia per voi?". Gli risposero: "Concedici di sedere, nella tua gloria, uno alla tua destra e uno alla tua sinistra". Gesù disse loro: "Voi non sapete quello che chiedete. Potete bere il calice che io bevo, o essere battezzati nel battesimo in cui io sono battezzato?". Gli risposero: "Lo possiamo". E Gesù disse loro: "Il calice che io bevo, anche voi lo berrete, e nel battesimo in cui io sono battezzato anche voi sarete battezzati. Ma sedere alla mia destra o alla mia sinistra non sta a me concederlo; è per coloro per i quali è stato preparato". Parola del Signore.

La domanda di Giacomo e Giovanni, i figli di Zebedeo è dettata ancora da un desiderio terreno e da una comprensione della gloria di Cristo valutata secondo la mentalità umana. Non è colta ancora la sua novità di offerta. Essa è veramente gloria, ma dopo la croce. Gesù rivela loro con quale premessa si può prendere parte alla sua gloria: bisogna bere il suo calice, condividere la sua morte. Ma questo significato della gloria del Signore e di quanto accadrà, non è oscuro soltanto ai due fratelli, lo è anche agli altri dieci, che se non giungono a tanto assurda richiesta, vi reagiscono con il medesimo spirito, tutti sono ripiegati sui propri meschini interessi. Lo schema che opera in tutti indistintamente è quello "dei capi delle nazioni e dei loro grandi". Gesù corregge il loro concetto di gloria, troppo umano e ne propone uno nuovo. "Fra voi però non è così". Secondo il vangelo il primato consiste e si esercita nel servire. Il primo è l'ultimo, il grande è il servo. Anche il Figlio dell'uomo infatti non è venuto per farsi servire, ma per servire e dare la propria vita in riscatto per molti".
