5:15pm - 5:45pm

21st September 2025
25th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year C

First Reading - Amos 8.4-7

A reading from the book of the prophet Amos

Hear this, you that trample on the needy, and bring to ruin the poor of the land, saying, "When will the new moon be over so that we may sell grain; and the sabbath, so that we may offer wheat for sale? We will measure out less and charge more, and tamper with the scales, buying the poor for silver and the needy for a pair of sandals, and selling the sweepings of the wheat." The Lord has sworn by the pride of Jacob: "Surely I will never forget any of their deeds."

Responsorial Psalm - Psalm 113.1-2, 4-6, 7-8 (R.1a, 7a)

R. Praise the Lord who lifts up the poor

Praise, O servants of the Lord; praise the name of the Lord.

Blessed be the name of the Lord from this time on and forevermore. R.

The Lord is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.

Who is like the Lord our God, who is seated on high, who looks far down on the heavens and the earth? R.

The Lord raises the poor from the dust, and lifts the needy from the ash heap, to make them sit with princes, with the princes of his people. R.

Second Reading - 1 Timothy 2.1-7++

A reading from the first letter of Paul to Timothy.

My dearly beloved, I urge that supplications, prayers, intercessions, and thanksgivings be made for everyone, for kings and all who are in high positions, so that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and dignity. This is right and is acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour, who desires everyone to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. For there is one God; there is also one mediator between God and the human race, Christ Jesus, himself human, who gave himself a ransom for all; this was attested at the right time. For this I was appointed a herald and an apostle, a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth. I am telling the truth, I am not lying.

Gospel - Luke 16:10-13

A reading from the holy gospel according to Luke.

"Whoever is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much; and whoever is dishonest in a very little is dishonest also in much. If then you have not been faithful with the dishonest wealth, who will entrust to you the true riches? And if you have not been faithful with what belongs to another, who will give you what is your own? "No slave can serve two masters; for a slave will either hate the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve God and wealth."

GOSPEL REFLECTION - Luke 16:10-13

Jesus, surprisingly, found something appealing about this steward who was in the rapacious lending business. What was it? Faced with the news that he was about to lose his position, his catastrophic reversal of fortune, he cut a deal with his debtors to help secure his future. Jesus gave him full marks for being astute and shrewd. Jesus laments the fact that many of his followers, 'children of the light,' are not as smart in the face of the Great Reversal – which He is inaugurating in which 'the hungry will be filled with good things and the rich sent empty away' (Mary's Magnificat). We should be using our money ('mammon') to alleviate the myriad hungers of the world, not to buy our way into Heaven, but so that we become the sort of person who will be able to enjoy the heavenly companionship of those who hungered. We could take a moment to pause and take stock of the use of our resources which are passing, so that we may be received into the eternal habitation.

Parish Stewardship...
Grateful and Generous as Pilgrims of Hope

Stewardship isn't some exclusive club:

- We are all stewards!
- Living a stewardship lifestyle is a series of conversions – changes that soften our hearts and makes room for the Holy Spirit to enter and work through us.
- As the Body of Christ, we are called to help each other strengthen our relationship with the Holy Trinity and with each other.
- The whole point of Stewardship – to help each other get to Heaven!

Living a stewardship lifestyle:

- Takes time – time to pray.
- Is difficult – demands placing God first in all things and not putting other "gods" before God.
- Means taking risks – detaching ourselves from our time, comfort, possessions, and money.
- Placing our complete trust in God and being generous with all of our gifts, especially the one that means the most to you.

CFCA Youth for Christ is one of the Family Ministries of Couples for Christ Australia. It is a vibrant ministry for young believers and followers of Jesus, with the empowerment and conviction of the Holy Spirit, eager to share the love of Christ with others.

The mission and vision of CFCA focuses on 3 principal objectives: individual renewal, family renewal and community/church renewal. In YFCA we do this by involving the young members of the family falling within the YFCA age group of 12 – 18 years old. If you are 12 – 18 years old, we would like to invite you to a spirit-filled Youth for Christ Entry Camp on 4-5 October, 2025, to be held at Salisbury Parish Family Centre.

NOTIZIE ITALIANE - Domenica 21 Settembre 2025

25ª Domenica - Anno C (Luca 16, 1-13.)

(Source: Pope Benedict XVI - Homily 23 September 2007)

«Un uomo ricco aveva un amministratore, e questi fu accusato dinanzi a lui di sperperare i suoi averi. Lo chiamò e gli disse: "Che cosa sento dire di te? Rendi conto della tua amministrazione, perché non potrai più amministrare". L'amministratore disse tra sé: "Che cosa farò, ora che il mio padrone mi toglie l'amministrazione? Zappare, non ne ho la forza; mendicare, mi vergogno. So io che cosa farò perché, quando sarò stato allontanato dall'amministrazione, ci sia qualcuno che mi accolga in casa sua". Chiamò uno per uno i debitori del suo padrone e disse al primo: "Tu quanto devi al mio padrone?". Quello rispose: "Cento barili d'olio". Gli disse: "Prendi la tua ricevuta, siediti subito e scrivi cinquanta". Poi disse a un altro: "Tu quanto devi?". Rispose: "Cento misure di grano". Gli disse: "Prendi la tua ricevuta e scrivi ottanta". Il padrone lodò quell'amministratore disonesto, perché aveva agito con scaltrezza. I figli di questo mondo, infatti, verso i loro pari sono più scaltri dei figli della luce. Ebbene, io vi dico: fatevi degli amici con la ricchezza disonesta, perché, quando questa verrà a mancare, essi vi accolgano nelle dimore eterne. Chi è fedele in cose di poco conto, è fedele anche in cose importanti; e chi è disonesto in cose di poco conto, è disonesto anche in cose importanti. Se dunque non siete stati fedeli nella ricchezza disonesta, chi vi affiderà quella vera? E se non siete stati fedeli nella ricchezza altrui, chi vi darà la vostra? Nessun servitore può servire due padroni, perché o odierà l'uno e amerà l'altro, oppure si affeziona all'uno e disprezzerà l'altro. Non potete servire Dio e la ricchezza». Parola del Signore. Oggi, come ieri, la vita del cristiano esige il coraggio di andare contro corrente, di amare come Gesù, che è giunto sino al sacrificio di sé sulla croce. Potremmo allora dire, parafrasando una considerazione di Sant'Agostino, che per mezzo delle ricchezze terrene dobbiamo procurarci quelle vere ed eterne: se infatti si trova gente pronta ad ogni tipo di disonestà pur di assicurarsi un benessere materiale sempre aleatorio, quanto più noi cristiani dovremmo preoccuparci di provvedere alla nostra eterna felicità con i beni di questa terra".
