EXCERPTS FROM THE MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS FOR THE 110th WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES 2024

(Sunday, 29 September 2024)

God walks with his people

Dear brothers and sisters!

Emphasizing the synodal dimension allows the Church to rediscover its itinerant nature, as the People of God journeying through history on pilgrimage, "migrating", we could say, toward the Kingdom of Heaven (cf. Lumen Gentium, 49). The biblical narrative of Exodus, depicting the Israelites on their way to the promised land, naturally comes to mind: a long journey from slavery to freedom, prefiguring the Church's journey toward her final encounter with the Lord.

Likewise, it is possible to see in the migrants of our time, as in those of every age, a living image of God's people on their way to the eternal homeland. Their journeys of hope remind us that "our citizenship is in heaven, and it is from there that we are expecting a Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ" (Phil 3:20).

The images of the biblical exodus and of migrants share several similarities. Like the people of Israel in the time of Moses, migrants often flee from oppression, abuse, insecurity, discrimination, and lack of opportunities for development. Similar to the Jews in the desert, migrants encounter many obstacles in their path: they are tried by thirst and hunger; they are exhausted by toil and disease; they are tempted by despair.

Yet the fundamental reality of the Exodus, of every exodus, is that God precedes and accompanies his people and all his children in every time and place. Many migrants experience God as their travelling companion, guide and anchor of salvation. They entrust themselves to him before setting out and seek him in times of need. In him, they find consolation in moments of discouragement. Thanks to him, there are good Samaritans along the way. In prayer, they confide their hopes to him.

God not only walks with his people but also within them, in the sense that he identifies himself with men and women on their journey through history, particularly with the least, the poor and the marginalized. In this, we see an extension of the mystery of the Incarnation.

For this reason, the encounter with the migrant, as with every brother and sister in need, "is also an encounter with Christ. Every encounter along the way represents an opportunity to meet the Lord; it is an occasion charged with salvation, because Jesus is present in the sister or brother in need of our help. In this sense, the poor save us, because they enable us to encounter the face of the Lord (cf. Message for the Third World Day of the Poor, 17 November 2019).

Dear brothers and sisters, on this day dedicated to migrants and refugees, let us unite in prayer for all those who have had to leave their land in search of dignified living conditions. May we journey together with them, be "synodal" together, and entrust them, as well as the forthcoming Synod Assembly, "to the intercession of the Blessed Virgin Mary, a sign of sure hope and consolation to the faithful People of God as they continue their journey" (XVI Ordinary General Assembly Synthesis Report: Proceeding Along the Journey).

CELEBRATING THE SEASON OF CREATION

To hope and Act with Creation

The Season of Creation is the annual Christian celebration that calls us together each year to pray and respond jointly to the cry of Creation. The "Celebration" begins on September 1st, the Feast of Creation, and concludes on October 4th, the Feast of St. Francis of Assisi - the patron saint of ecology. This year the theme "Hope and Act with Creation" and the symbol "The first-fruits of hope", inspired by Romans 8:19-25, will be our guiding inspiration.

The following ideas act as a guide, in your preparation and participation during the Season of Creation. Let us unite as one community to care for our common home

OCTOBER – MONTH OF THE ROSARY

October is designated by the Catholic Church as the "Month of the Rosary" because in this month the Church celebrates the Marian advocacy of "Our Lady of the Rosary" on Oct. 7.

The feast of Our Lady of the Rosary, also celebrated as Our Lady of Victory or Victories, was established by Pope St. Pius V in 1571 to celebrate the miraculous victory of the Christian forces in the Battle of Lepanto on Oct. 7 of that year. Previous to the decisive battle, St. Pius V had requested all Western Christians to pray the rosary; thus, he attributed the victory to the power of the Marian prayer rather than the power of ships and cannons.

Two years before establishing the feast, in 1569, Pope St. Pius V officially approved the rosary in its present form with the papal bull Consueverunt Romani Pontifices ("The Roman Pontiffs are accustomed," the first words of the document). In a development from earlier methods of praying the rosary, the new version included the second half of the Hail Mary, as well as the "Glory Be" prayer at the end of each mystery.

Prayer for the 110th World Day of Migrants and Refugees 2024

God, Almighty Father,
we are your pilgrim Church
journeying towards the Kingdom of heaven.

We live in our homeland,
but as if we were foreigners.

Every foreign place is our home,
yet every native land is foreign to us.

Though we live on earth,
our true citizenship is in heaven.

Do not let us become possessive of the portion of the world

you have given us a s a temporary home.

Help us to keep walking,
together with our migrant brothers and sisters,
toward the eternal dwelling you have prepared for us.

Open our eyes and our hearts

so that every encounter with those in need becomes an encounter with Jesus, your Son and our Lord.

Amen

NOTIZIE ITALIANE (Domenica 29 Settembre 2024)

26^a Domenica - Anno B (Marco 9, 47-48)

In quel tempo, Giovanni disse a Gesù: "Maestro, abbiamo visto uno che scacciava demòni nel tuo nome e volevamo impedirglielo, perché non ci seguiva". Ma Gesù disse: "Non glielo impedito, perché non c'è nessuno che faccia un miracolo nel mio nome e subito possa parlare male di me: chi non è contro di noi è per noi. Chiunque infatti vi darà da bere un bicchiere d'acqua nel mio nome perché siete di Cristo, in verità io vi dico, non perderà la sua ricompensa. Chi scandalizzerà uno solo di questi piccoli che credono in me, è molto meglio per lui che gli venga messa al collo una macina da mulino e sia gettato nel mare.

Parola del Signore.

Quest'anno la festa dei santi Arcangeli Michele, Gabriele e Raffaele cade di domenica, e anche se non possiamo celebrarla oggi, diamo lode al Signore in mezzo ai suoi Angeli.

Nel vangelo di oggi leggiamo: "Maestro, abbiamo visto uno che scacciava i demòni nel tuo nome e glielo abbiamo vietato, perché non era uno dei nostri". Questo è quanto si premura Giovanni di riferire a Gesù, preoccupato di una invasione indebita di campo. Dio è tutt'altro. Egli è libero di concedere i suoi doni a chi vuole; agisce al di là dei nostri pensieri e delle stesse strutture sacre. Siamo avvertiti di non concepire la potenza e la presenza di Gesù Cristo come un nostro riservato 'possesso', di non intendere la comunità cristiana, come un gruppo, quello dei 'nostri', chiuso ed esclusivo; di non invidiare o misconoscere il bene che possiamo incontrare fuori dei confini visibili, tracciati dai nostri calcoli
